PROMISE OF SAFETY TO AMERICANS EXPECTED IN REPLY TO WILSON NOTE

RUSSIANS SAVE LEMBERG; DRIVE FOE BACK 4 MILES; TAKE 10,000 PRISONERS

Gen. Mackensen's Advance Is Checked in a Twelve-Hour Battle.

TEUTONS MOWED DOWN

Swept by Artillery Fire at One Point Where They Couldn't Retreat.

PETROGRAD, June 11.—Gen.
Mackensen's army, marching on Lemberg from the west, has been defeated with heavy losses and driven back nearly four miles in the direction of Przemysl. The Russians smashed Mackensen's front in a twelve-hour battle near Msciska.

An official announcement from army headquarters given out to-day recites a Russian success on the frontiers yesterday took from their antagonists 17 cannon and 49 machine guns and captured approximately 6,700 officers and men.

A supplementary statement, issued by the War Office this afternoon, reported the capture of more than 10,000 Austro-Germans in the last three days' fighting west and south of Lemberg and a complete check of the enemy's offensive directed toward the Galician town.

The text of the official communication follows:

"By heroic efforts our troops Thursday repulsed on the right bank of the River Dniester great forces of the enemy, who had crossed near Zurawna, east of Stryj.

"On the front from Julakow to Stewik the enemy sustained great losses. After a hard fight we captured 17 cannon and 49 machine guns and took prisoners 188 officers and 6,500 men. Among the prisoners is one entire company of the Prussian Fusilier Guards."

A second Austro-German army, advancing on Lemberg from the south and southeast, has been halted and driven back behind the Stanislaw-Lemberg railway, along the left bank of the Dniester. In the fighting north of Stryj, the Russians have taken 2,000 prisoners and eight machine guns.

"At practically all points our armies are now either on the offensive or maintaining their positions," said an

TWO PERSONS KILLED BY OVERTURNING AUTO

Mrs. Ida B. Friedley, fifty-five, of No. 1620 Locust Street, Philadelphia, was crushed to death beneath her auto when it went over an embankment near Cross River, near White Plains, to-day. Dunton McInnis, her chauffeur, was caught beneath the car and suffered internal injuries from which he died in the White Plains Hospital.

Miss Elizabeth Martin, Mrs. Friedley's companion, was only slightly bruised. The party was touring to Bridgeport, Conn.

DIVORCE FOR WIFE OF JOHN D. CRIMMINS JR. ON REFEREE'S REPORT

Decree Granted on Ground of Habitual Intemperance—Alimony of $1 Given.

(Special to The Evening World.) BRIDGEPORT, Conn., June 11.— Lillian Holmes Crimmins was granted a decree of divorce this afternoon from John D. Crimmins Jr., son of the New York contractor. Habitual intemperance was the basis for separation.

Mrs. Crimmins was given $1 alimony. She will have the custody of the two children, John D. Crimmins Jr., nine years old, and Holmes, seven.
According to a prenuptial agreement, the children will be reared in the Catholic faith. Crimmins is ordered to pay $125 a month for their support and schooling.

Attorney C. S. Canfield had been appointed a committee to hear the case in private, because of the possibility of the names of prominent persons becoming involved. He made his report that Crimmins had been habitually intemperate for the last three years and the report was accepted by the Superior Court.

DR. GOLDWATER OPENS WAR ON DEMON RUM

Has Backing of Bryan in Providing Seats on the Water Wagon.

Having essayed to clean up about everything else in town, Dr. Goldwater, President of the Board of Health, has started on the trail of the Demon Rum. It is his plan to persuade the people of New York to stop drinking.
Dr. Goldwater says he has the backing of ex-Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan.

Dr. Goldwater will be aided by a special committee of the Advisory Council of the Board of Health, which is composed of physicians, pathologists and chemists. A newspaper advertising, bill poster and pamphlet campaign will be inaugurated and Dr.
Goldwater may also take a hand in the regulation of the liquor traffic, with particular relation to excise and healthful and unhealthy saloons.

DARLING IS NAMED IN SHAW DIVORCE SUIT

Robert Maraden Shaw, wealthy young manufacturer, to-day filed suit in the Supreme Court against his youthful wife, Katherine E. Lyall Shaw, naming Robert M. Darling, rich real estate man and National Guardian, as co-respondent.

Three months ago in Westchester County Darling was acquitted on the charge of violating the State White Slave Law. It was charged at that time that Darling took Mrs. Shaw, who is just past eighteen, to the Ge-denny Farm Hotel and lived with her.
Mrs. Shaw in return used to announce her marriage and lost. Shaw retaliated by suing Darling for alienation of affections.

BRITISH CRUISER HIT IN ADRIATIC BY SUBMARINE

Sunk, Says the Austrian Report; Damaged and Towed In, London Asserts.

EIGHT MORE SHIPS SUNK.

Zeppelin Bombs Hit Two in North Sea—Submarines Sink Six.

VIENNA (via Berlin, wireless to Sayville, L. I.), June 11.—Austrian submarine No. 4 torpedoed and sank a British cruiser of the type of the Liverpool thirty miles west of St.
Jean Madua in the Adriatic on Wednesday. The submarine evaded six destroyers conveying the cruiser.

The official statement this afternoon said the Austrian submarine was commanded by Lieut. Singule.
LONDON, June 11.—The press bureau issued a statement this afternoon declaring that the British light cruiser reported to have been sunk by an Austrian submarine was not seriously damaged and reached port safely.

[The Liverpool is a light cruiser. Five vessels of this type were built for the British navy in 1909.
The other boats are the Bristol, Gloucester, Newcastle and Glasgow. The last-named cruiser sank the German cruiser Dresden off Juan Fernandez Islands in the Pacific last March.]

The boats of the Liverpool type are 430 feet long, 47 feet beam, 12.1 feet deep and displace 4,820 tons. They are built to travel at a speed of twenty-five knots and carry a crew of 376 officers and men. These vessels are armed with two six-inch guns, ten four-inch guns and two eighteen-inch torpedo tubes.]

MAASLUIS, Holland, June 10 (via London, 7:15 P. M.)—The British fishing smacks Welfare and Laurestine were attacked and sunk by Zeppelins in the North Sea. The crew, which took to their boats, were picked up by a Dutch smack and brought here.

CARDIFF (via London, June 11.— The Glasgow steamship Strathcarron was torpedoed yesterday without warning by a German submarine while outward bound from Barry.
The crew, which put off in boats, was rescued by a steamer and landed here.

BERLIN (via London, June 11.— The Batavia liner Zwelin has been torpedoed and sunk. Five members of her crew and eleven passengers were rescued by a Dutch fishing boat.

LONDON, June 11.—The Russian bark Thomasina has been torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine off the southwest coast of Ireland. The members of the crew of the sailing ship have been landed at Queenstown.
The Swedish steamer Otago, bound for Hull, was torpedoed and sunk last night.

The Russian steamer Dania has also been torpedoed by a German submarine. The members of her crew were saved.

Another victim of the submarines was the schooner Express, whose crew was landed to-day at Liverpool.

The Strathcarron was a vessel of 2,807 tons, built in 1912 at Greenock and was owned by the Strathcarron Steamship Company of Glasgow.
The Otago, of 979 tons net, was 241 feet long and was built in 1882. She was owned in Solvesborg, Sweden.
The Russian steamer Dania was of 1,639 tons net, 214 feet long and was built at Sunderland in 1905. She was owned by the Northern Steamship Company, Ltd., of Petrograd. Maritime records show that she has been running between Liverpool and Archangel.

HIGHBALLS AID TO EFFICIENCY, SAYS M'CORMICK'S CHUM

Denies Whitman Staff Dinners Were So Called Because Crutches Were Needed.

SIX A GOOD STARTER.

Carries No Speedometer, but Drinks When He Wants To, Says Another.

When the hearing of the separation suit of Mrs. Frances McCormick against her husband Robert D. Mc-Cormick, Assistant District Attorney, was resumed before Supreme Court Justice Blanchard after luncheon today, the question of Mr. McCormick's acquaintance with Old John Barleycorn was taken up by Mirabeau L.
Towns. Three Assistant District Attorneys who work with Mr. McCormick were called. The first witness was Robert S. Johnstone, who has been handling the Thaw case for several months.

Q. Do you drink? A. No.
Q. You know, don't you, that it impairs one's efficiency? A. I've never considered that.

Q. Don't you know it is a proven fact that no person who can digest whiskey ever gets drunk? A. No, I don't know that, but I'll tell you that Bob McCormick is one of the most amiable persons I have ever met.

Q. Don't you know that one of the first signs of insanity as a result of too much drink is that a person turns against those he loves? A. No, I must say I don't know that.

Q. Haven't you stood at the bar, patiently drinking plain water while McCormick has drunk six or seven highballs? A. No, that never happened.

Q. Ever put him on a train when he had been spending the night drinking Mr. Whitman into office?
A. No.

Q. Ever hear the old proverb, "In wine there's truth"? A. No.

Stanley M. Richter, who has charge of all habeas corpus matters in Per-kins's office, was called to tell about staff dinners given by the members of Mr. Whitman's force.
He never saw Mr. McCormick interacted, although he had attended five or six staff dinners.

Q. Now isn't it a fact that they were called "staff" dinners because of the need of crutches, or staffs, by the diners in order for them to get out of the dining room?

The courtroom was in an uproar, the witness himself laughing so long that Justice Blanchard had to ask him for his answer.

"That is not why they are so called," said Mr. Richter. "They have always been given in honor of our chief."

Thomas C. Press enlightened the Court on matters affecting Mr. Mc-Cormick's thirst.

Q. Is Mr. McCormick a one-bottle or two-bottle man? A. Beer is my favorite beverage, that is when I am alone, but when I'm out with Mr. Mc-Cormick I like Scotch highballs. They improve the mentality, don't you know.

Q. How many highballs can you stand? A. Never keep track. I've known myself to take six and the only thing I noticed was that I was much better off intellectually.

Q. Your intellect was improved? A.
Yes, sir; and if you remember that case you won against me—well, if I had indulged in a highball or two

RACING OSULTAN WINS FIRST AT JAMAICA IN EASY FASHION

Four-to-One Shot, With Buxton Up, Defeats the Favorite, Camellia.

JAMAICA, L. I., June 11.—Conditions were marred at the track this afternoon by a strong east wind, which blew over the grandstand and lawn, making it no easy job to keep one's straw hat on. The programme was of the overnight variety, containing little in the way of features.
The opening attraction saw the defeat of the favorite Camellia by O'Sullivan, a 4 to 1 shot. Ridden by Buxton, he led all the way and won in a mild drive. Camellia had no excuse. She simply was not good enough. Hernia Jr. was third.

SON OF NOBLEMAN KILLS GIRL IN PARK; ENDS HIS OWN LIFE

Frederick Hussenius and Anna Malmquist Die Because They Cannot Wed.

'WE ACT WITHOUT FEAR.'

Letter Asks His Friend to Notify Mother and Have Them Buried Together.

Unable to marry pretty Anna Malmquist of No. 552 Carlton Avenue, Brooklyn, because of the opposition of her mother, Frederick Hussenius of No. 512 Second Avenue shot and killed the girl in Central Park early to-day and then killed himself.

The tragedy occurred near the west drive at Sixty-fifth Street.
Mrs. Ebba Kuhlman, the girl's mother, identified the body at the Arsenal Station. She was found through a telephone number in a letter left by Hussenius.

"Hussenius," said Mrs. Kuhlman, "met my daughter about a year ago.
Anna was an educated girl, a musician with talent and desiring of a good husband. This murderer was a cheap apprentice and not her equal in any way and I refused to let her marry him."

Mrs. Kuhlman was told there was a report that Hussenius was the son of a Swedish nobleman. She said she didn't believe it, and even if he was his act of murder and suicide had shown her judgment of him justified.

PLANNED TO KILL GIRL IN JER-SEY CITY.
That Hussenius had planned the crime as long ago as last Tuesday and had probably contemplated killing the girl and himself in Jersey City was established to-day when it was found that he slept Tuesday and Wednesday nights in the rooming house at No.
28 Eighth Street, Jersey City, conducted by Mrs. Mary Franks.

Hussenius, although he had a room in Second Avenue, Manhattan, called at Mrs. Franks's house Tuesday and said he wanted to rent two rooms, one for himself and one for his wife, a Brooklyn music teacher. Mrs.

BERLIN WILL ACCEPT WILSON'S TERMS, SAY GERMANS IN CAPITAL

Reports From Washington Say von Jagow Will Agree to the Offer to Mediate With Great Britain on Changing Methods of Warfare.

HOPE OF ENDING WORK OF SUBMARINES REVIVED

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Persons close to the German Embassy take the view that the latest note of President Wilson to the German Government so clears the situation that there is every prospect that there will be a peaceful settlement of the controversy.

It is said that Germany has been ready to accept as true a statement by the United States that the Lusitania was not armed. President Wilson in the note cabled Wednesday declared the liner was not supplied with arms and that she was not a transport. The view in many quarters in Washington is that this statement will be accepted by Berlin and that the way to a peaceful settlement has been made.

Germans who made an accurate forecast of the first Berlin note concerning the Lusitania are now forecasting the new one which von Jagow will send.

They say the new note will discuss at great length humane warfare on land and sea.
That it will waive further controversy as to the Lusitania being armed or unarmed and reiterate Germany's willingness to make such reparation as can be made.
That it will assure the safety of Americans at sea, insofar as it is possible to make such assurance.

That it will declare passenger vessels shall not be attacked by German vessels unless known to be armed merchantmen.
That, most important of all, it will accept President Wilson's suggestion concerning the good offices of the United States "in an attempt to come to an understanding with the Government of Great Britain, by which the character and conditions of the war upon the sea may be changed."

These Germans say that Berlin may be expected to say: "These things we do for America, but we are willing to extend the principle to include our enemies, if the United States can bring about a return by England to the rules laid down by the declaration of London."

This, it is pointed out, means an end of submarine warfare against commerce—more than the United States is asking in the present controvery.

It is asserted that it means even a greater thing, if diplomats of more than one nation can be believed—the beginning of negotiations between Germany and England, through the United States as mediator, and with such negotiations once begun it is declared the end of the war is in sight.

It does not take a long talk with the representatives of the various nations, it is maintained, to reach the conclusion that every one of these nations is tired of the struggle and willing to find a way out of it.

While the President expects a prompt answer, it is realized that it may be two weeks in coming. In the mean time Germany will be informed of the facts gathered by the American Government in connection with the dropping of bombs from an aeroplane on the American steamer Cushing.

Bryan's Split With Wilson Made Final By His Letter

By Samuel M. Williams.
(Special Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)
WASHINGTON, June 11.—Intimations have been spread about Washington since the note to Germany was published and its extremely moderate tone revealed that it might have been toned down since Mr. Bryan saw it and resigned rather than sign it. Suggestion of this arose because among Mr. Bryan's official friends there is wonder what language in the note caused him to consider it as so aggressive and hostile.

Robert Lansing, Secretary of State ad interim, was asked today whether any changes had been made in text. He replied that he showed the note to Mr. Bryan by direction of the President while Mr. Bryan still was Secretary of State and not a letter had been changed since.

BREAK WITH WILSON SEEMS TO BE FINAL.
With simultaneous publication of President Wilson's note and former Secretary Bryan's appeal to the public against it there has been created a definite division between the two men.
Despite the latter's professions of friendship for the President, there is not now possible continuance of their once cordial relationship.

No word of comment or reproach is uttered by Mr. Wilson, nor will any high official of the Government speak
